

Member Ambassador Programme

Member support has been a cornerstone of the HKSI Institute's mission to promote and raise standards of the Hong Kong financial industry. Being a proud member of this professional community, you can help expand our reach and introduce friends and colleagues to join us.

As a small token of appreciation, we will waive the joining fees of the new members. For the ambassador, an HKSI Institute coupon of HK$100 will be granted for each successful new membership. The coupon can be used for membership renewal or programme enrolment. In addition, the ambassadors will be acknowledged at the AGM.
